National Pet Day History

FRIDAY, APRIL 22ND

Earth Day History

Earth Day seeks to highlight and promote efforts dedicated to the protection of the environment. As we enter the 21st century, we face many environmental crises including global warming, deforestation, endangered wildlife, shortages of potable water, and widespread pollution. These crises negatively affect our planet's resources, and they pose serious risk to our long-term lifestyles and health. Today, Earth Day is celebrated by billions of people around the world and is observed in over 190 countries. Worldwide, Earth Day celebrations utilize educational programs to inform people of ways that can help protect the environment and its natural resources. It is observed annually on April 22nd.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27TH

Administrative Professionals' Day

Administrative Professionals' Day seeks to celebrate and show appreciation for administrative professionals. This includes secretaries, receptionists, and office assistants, and other administrative support professionals. This day recognizes the efforts put forth in managing day-to-day responsibilities. It aims to reward administrative professionals with either monetary gifts or special lunches. Administrative Professionals' Day was established in 1952 by the president of the National Secretaries Association Mary Barrett. Alongside her were C. King Woodbridge and Harry F. Klemfuss. It is observed during the last full week of April on Wednesday.

FRIDAY, APRIL 29TH
Arbor Day History

Arbor Day is a celebration of trees and their importance to providing shelter, stabilization for the ground, and beauty to the beholder. This day encourages planting trees to help protect the Earth. While Arbor Day is a US holiday, several other countries have adopted similar observances including Japan, Australia, South Korea, and Yugoslavia. Arbor Day was established in 1872 by newspaper editor J. Sterling Morton. It eventually became recognized and signed into law in each US state in the 1920s. It is observed annually on the last Friday in April.
